Entrance Antiphon: All peoples, clap your hands. Cry to God with shouts of joy!

First Reading: A reading from the first book of the Kings (19:16, 19-21)

The Lord said to Elijah: 'Go, you are to anoint Elisha son of Shaphat, of Abel Meholah, as prophet to succeed you.' Leaving there, Elijah came to Elisha son of Shaphat as he was ploughing behind twelve yoke of oxen, he himself being with the twelfth. Elijah passed near to him and threw his cloak over him. Elisha left his oxen and ran after Elijah. 'Let me kiss my father and mother, then I will follow you' he said. Elijah answered, 'Go, go back; for have I done anything to you?' Elisha turned away, took the pair of oxen and slaughtered them. He used the plough for cooking the oxen, then gave to his men, who ate. He then rose, and followed Elijah and became his servant.

Responsorial Psalm: (Ps. 15)

R. You are my inheritance, O Lord !

- Preserve me, God, I take refuge in you. I say to the Lord: 'You are my God.' O Lord, it is you who are my portion and cup; it is you yourself who are my prize. (R)
- I will bless the Lord who gives me counsel, who even at night directs my heart. I keep the Lord ever in my sight: since he is at my right hand, I shall stand firm. (R)
- And so my heart rejoices, my soul is glad; even my body shall rest in safety. For you will not leave my soul among the dead, nor let your beloved know decay. (R)
- You will show me the path of life, the fullness of joy in your presence, at your right hand happiness for ever. (R)

Second Reading: A reading from the letter of St Paul to the Galatians (5:1, 13-18)

When Christ freed us, he meant us to remain free. Stand firm, therefore, and do not submit again to the yoke of slavery. My brothers, you were called, as you know, to liberty: but be careful, or this liberty will provide an opening for self-indulgence. Serve one another rather, in works of love, since the whole of the Law is summarised in a single command: Love your neighbour as yourself. If you go snapping at each other and tearing each other to pieces, you had better watch or you will destroy the whole community. Let me put it like this: if you are guided by the Spirit you will be in no danger of yielding to self-indulgence, since self-indulgence is the opposite of the Spirit, the Spirit is totally against such a thing, and it is precisely because the two are so opposed that you do not always carry out your good intentions. If you are led by the Spirit, no law can touch you.

Gospel Acclamation: Alleluia, alleluia! Speak O Lord, your servant is listening; you have the words of everlasting life Alleluia!

Gospel: A reading from the holy Gospel according to Luke (9:51-62)

As the time drew near for him to be taken up to heaven, Jesus resolutely took the road for Jerusalem and sent messengers ahead of him. These set out, and they went into a Samaritan village to make preparations for him, but the people would not receive him because he was making for Jerusalem. Seeing this, the disciples James and John said, 'Lord, do you want us to call down fire from heaven to burn them up?' But he turned and rebuked them, and they went off to another village. As they travelled along they met a man on the road who said to him, 'I will follow you wherever you go.' Jesus answered, 'Foxes have holes and the birds of the air have nests, but the Son of Man has nowhere to lay his head.' Another to whom he said, 'Follow me,' replied 'Let me go and bury my father first.' But he answered 'Leave the dead to bury their dead; your duty is to go and spread the news of the kingdom of God.' Another said, 'I will follow you, sir, but first let me go and say good-bye to my people at home.' Jesus said to him, 'Once the hand is laid on the plough, no one who looks back is fit for the kingdom of God.'

The Memorial Acclamation: When we eat this bread and drink this Cup, we proclaim your Death, O Lord, until you come again.

Communion Antiphon: Bless the Lord, O my soul, and all within me, his holy name.

PASTORAL CORNER

The Gospel this week reminds us that we are all called to be God's messengers - spreading the news of the Kingdom of God and continuing the work of his apostles in true discipleship.

What does Jesus want of us? True dedication, not half-hearted commitment. We cannot be selective about Jesus, we have to accept, Cross and Crown, Judgement and Mercy. We must count the cost and be willing to abandon everything that has given us security.

We should not disqualify ourselves from service to Christ because we think we don't have the right credentials. Serving takes attention away from the 'self' and causes our characters to blossom and our hearts to point towards God.

Reflect this week on Jesus as your Messiah, your Saviour... Do you look forward to meeting him in prayer and in his word each day?

PRAYER OF ST. EMILIE

St. Emilie, Good and generous labourer of the Gospel. You who were attentive to the call of the Spirit in the church and reached out to all peoples regardless of religion, race or colour, give us this spirit to reach out in love, so as to reveal by our lives the infinite love of the Father for all humanity.

St. Emilie, pray for us. AMEN

Update on Fr. Chien:

Fr Chien has been discharged from hospital and is back at home now. He is unable to have any visitors, for the first 3-4 months as advised by the doctors as he has very low immunity and is susceptible to infections that could affect his recovery and well-being. Fr Chien would like to thank each and every one of you for your understanding, daily prayers and the many messages of care and support. He is very grateful to God for this great gift of love, healing and hope.

We Need Singers:

St. Emilie Choir is in need of male and female singers. No previous experience required, but it would be so nice if you have been singing in choirs before. We sing at the 9am Mass every Sunday except the 3rd Sunday of every month. If interested, please contact any of our singers or see PHILOMENA in the choir area after Mass.

St Emilie's Primary School - First Reconciliation:

Many thanks to Father Jean-Noel, visiting priests, catechists and staff for your wonderful support of all those children who received the beautiful Sacrament of Reconciliation for the very first time on Wednesday this week. This gentle and shared experience was a credit to all involved.

Families will attend one of the three Thanksgiving Masses this weekend and receive a certificate. May we all continue to model respectful and loving relationships - in our families, school, workplaces and parish community - being quick to say sorry and generous to forgive!
