Entrance Antiphon: Your merciful love, O God, we have received in the midst of your temple. Your praise, O God, like your name, reaches the ends of the earth; your right hand is filled with saving justice!

First Reading: A reading from the Prophet Isaiah (66:10-14)

Rejoice Jerusalem, be glad for her, all you who love her! Rejoice, rejoice for her, all you who mourned her! That you may be suckled, filled, from her consoling breast, that you may savour with delight her glorious breasts. For thus says the Lord: Now towards her I send flowing peace, like a river, and like a stream in spite the glory of the nations. At her breast will her nurslings be carried and fondled in her lap. Like a son comforted by his mother will I comfort you. And by Jerusalem you will be comforted. At the sight your heart will rejoice, and your bones flourish like the grass. To his servants the Lord will reveal his hand.

Responsorial Psalm: (Ps. 65)

R. Let all the earth cry out to God with joy!

- Cry out with joy to God all the earth, O sing to the glory of his name. O render him glorious praise. Say to God: 'How tremendous your deeds! (R)
- 'Before you all the earth shall bow: shall sing to you, sing to your name!' Come and see the works of God, tremendous his deeds among men. (R)
- He turned the sea into dry land, they passed through the river dry-shod. Let our joy then be in him; he rules for every by his might. (R)
- Come and hear, all who fear God. I will tell what he did for my soul. Blessed be God who did not reject my prayer nor withhold his love from me. (R)

Second Reading: A reading from the letter of St Paul to the Galatians (6:14-18)

The only thing I can boast about is the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom the world is crucified to me, and I to the world. It does not matter if a person is circumcised or not; what matters is for him to become an altogether new creature. Peace and mercy to all who follow this rule, who form the Israel of God. I want no more trouble with anybody after this; the marks on my body are those of Jesus. The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit, my brothers. Amen.

Gospel Acclamation: Alleluia, alleluia! May the peace of Christ reign in your hearts; and the fullness of his message live within you. Alleluia!

Gospel: A reading from the holy Gospel according to Luke (10:1-12, 17-20)

The Lord appointed seventy-two others and sent them out ahead of him, in pairs, to all the towns and places he himself was to visit. He said to them, 'The harvest is rich but the labourers are few, so ask the Lord of the harvest to send labourers to his harvest. 'Start off now, but remember, I am sending you out like lambs among the wolves. Carry no purse, no haversack, no sandals. Salute no one on the road. 'Whatever house you go into, let your first words be, 'Peace to this house!' 'And if a man of peace lives there, your peace will and rest on him; if not, it will come back to you. 'Stay in the same house, taking what food and drink they have to offer, for the labourer deserves his wages; do not move from house to house. 'Whenever you go into a town where they make you welcome, eat what is set before you. Cure those in it who are sick, and say, The kingdom of God is very near to you.' But whenever you enter a town and they do not make you welcome, go out into its streets and say, 'We wipe off the very dust of your town that clings to our feet, and leave it with you. 'Yet be sure of this: the kingdom of God is very near.' 'I tell you, that on that day it will not go as hard with Sodom as with that town.' The seventy-two came back rejoicing: 'Lord', they said, 'even the devils submit to us when we use your name.' He said to them, 'I watched Satan fall like lightning from heaven. Yes, I have given you power to tread underfoot serpents and scorpions and the whole strength of the enemy; nothing shall ever hurt you. 'Yet do not rejoice that the spirits submit to you; rejoice rather that your names are written in heaven.'

PASTORAL CORNER

In the Gospel today, the mission of the seventy-two is symbolic of the great commission all Christians are called to: that of announcing the Gospel to others. It explores the manner of life lived by missionaries while on their mission. By comparing the mission to bringing in the harvest, Jesus is implying that the planting and nurturing have been successfully completed and all is ready for the ministry of the missionaries. However, the harvesting itself is a dangerous occupation, and the missionaries are as vulnerable as lambs among wolves. Jesus directs them to take only the bare essentials – to travel light. They are to trust God and depend on the hospitality of those who welcome them in. Jesus has not waited until the disciples are fully formed to send them on this mission – they will learn on the job. Do you feel ready and prepared to share this mission or will you too learn on the job? We are to go to others offering peace. No matter what the response is of others we do not lose it ourselves. During this week respond to awkward or difficult situations with forgiveness and peace.
