5th Sunday
of Easter

Entrance Antiphon O sing a new song to the Lord, for he has worked wonders; in the sight of the nations he has shown his deliverance, alleluia.

First Reading: A reading from the Acts of the Apostles (14:21-27)

Paul and Barnabas went back through Lystra and Iconium to Antioch. They put fresh heart into the disciples, encouraging them to persevere in the faith. 'We all have to experience many hardships' they said 'before we enter the kingdom of God.' In each of these churches they appointed elders, and with prayer and fasting they commended them to the Lord in whom they had come to believe. They passed through Pisidia and reached Pamphylia. Then after proclaiming the word at Perga they went down to Attalia and from there sailed for Antioch, where they had originally been commended to the grace of God for the work they had now completed. On their arrival they assembled the church and gave an account of all that God had done with them, and how he had opened the door of faith to the pagans.

Responsorial Psalm: (Ps. 144)

R. I will praise your name for ever, my king and my God

- The Lord is kind and full of compassion, slow to anger, abounding in love. How good is the Lord to all, compassionate to all his creatures. (R)
- All your creatures shall thank you O Lord, and your friends shall repeat their blessing. They shall speak of the glory of your reign and declare your might, O God, to make known to men your mighty deeds and the glorious splendour of your reign. (R)
- Yours is an everlasting kingdom; your rule lasts from age to age. (R)

Second Reading: A reading from the book of Apocalypse (21:1-5)

I John, saw a new heaven and a new earth; the first heaven and the first earth had disappeared now, and there was no longer any sea. I saw the holy city, and the new Jerusalem, coming down from God out of heaven, as beautiful as a bride all dressed for her husband. Then I heard a loud voice call from the throne, 'You see this city? Here God lives among men. He will make his home among them; they shall be his people, and he will be their God; his name is God-with-them. He will wipe away all tears from their eyes; there will be no more death, and no more mourning or sadness. The world of the past has gone.' Then the One sitting on the throne spoke: 'Now I am making the whole of creation new.'

Gospel Acclamation: Alleluia, alleluia! I give you a new commandment: Love one another as I have loved you. Alleluia!

Gospel: A reading from the holy Gospel according to John (13:31-35)

When Judas had gone Jesus said: 'Now has the Son of Man been glorified, and in him God has been glorified. If God has been glorified in him, God will in turn glorify him in himself, and will glorify him very soon. 'My little children, I shall not be with you much longer. I give you a new commandment: love one another; 'just as I have loved you, you also must love one another. 'By this love you have for one another, everyone will know that you are my disciples.'

The Memorial Acclamation: Save us, Saviour of the world, for by your Cross and Resurrection you have set us free.

Communion Antiphon: I am the true vine and you are the branches, says the Lord. Whoever remains in me, and I in him, bears fruit in plenty, alleluia.

PASTORAL CORNER

In this week's Gospel, Jesus is not simply telling his disciples that they must love each other, but that they must love as he has loved. This is moving beyond the commandment to love one's neighbour as oneself. The love that Jesus showed was the total self-giving and selfless love that led to his death on the cross. Can you take up the challenge and act with love towards all people you encounter?

Look at the people you know who are good lovers and you will see how much of their loving is really healing. They have the gift to make others feel better – and be better. They have hands that touch and help and heal. It is the greatest challenge of love. Reflect on how to be a 'good lover' and then offer your love to someone you know who is in pain or who is lonely or discouraged.

PRAYER OF ST. EMILIE

St. Emilie, Good and generous labourer of the Gospel. You who were attentive to the call of the Spirit in the church and reached out to all peoples regardless of religion, race or colour, give us this spirit to reach out in love, so as to reveal by our lives the infinite love of the Father for all humanity.

St. Emilie, pray for us. AMEN
