The Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity
Year C

Entrance Antiphon: Blest be God the Father, and the Only Begotten Son of God, and also the Holy Spirit, for he has shown us his merciful love.

First Reading: A reading from the Book of Proverbs (8:22-31)

The Wisdom of God cries aloud: The Lord created me when his purpose first unfolded, before the oldest of his works. From everlasting I was firmly set, from the beginning, before earth came into being. The deep was not when I was born, there were no springs to gush with water. Before the mountains were settled, before the hills, I came to birth; before he made the earth, the countryside, or the first grains of the world's dust. When he fixed the heavens firm, I was there, when he drew a ring on the surface of the deep, when he thickened the clouds above, when he fixed fast the springs of the deep, when he assigned the sea its boundaries - and the waters did not invade the shore - when he laid down the foundations of the earth, I was by his side, a master craftsman, delighting him day after day, ever at play in his presence, at play everywhere in his world, delighting to be with the sons of men.

Responsorial Psalm: (Ps. 8)

R. O Lord, our God, how wonderful your name in all the earth !

- When I see the heavens, the work of your hands, the moon and the stars which you arranged, what is man that you should keep him in mind, mortal man that you care for him? (R)
- Yet you have made him little less than a god; with glory and honour you crowned him, gave him power over the works of your hand, put all things under his feet. (R)
- All of them, sheep and cattle, yes, even the savage beasts, birds of the air and fish that make their way through the waters. (R)

Second Reading: A reading from the letter of St Paul to the Romans (5:1-5)

Through our Lord Jesus Christ by faith we are judged righteous and at peace with God, since it is by faith and through Jesus that we have entered this state of grace in which we can boast about looking forward to God's glory. But that is not all we can boast about; we can boast about our sufferings. These sufferings bring patience, as we know, and patience brings perseverance and perseverance brings hope, and this hope is not deceptive, because the love of God has been poured into our hearts by the Holy Spirit which has been given us.

Gospel Acclamation: Alleluia, alleluia! Glory to the Father, and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit: to God who is, who was and who is to come. Alleluia!

Gospel: A reading from the holy Gospel according to John (16:12-15)

Jesus said to his disciples: 'I still have many things to say to you but they would be too much for you now. 'But when the Spirit of truth comes he will lead you to the complete truth, since he will not be speaking as from himself but will say only what he has learnt; and he will tell you of the things to come. 'He will glorify me since all he tells you will be taken from what is mine. Everything the Father has is mine; that is why I said: All he tells you will be taken from what is mine.'

The Memorial Acclamation: When we eat this bread and drink this Cup, we proclaim your Death, O Lord, until you come again.

Communion Antiphon: Since you are children of God, God has sent into your hearts the Spirit of his Son, the Spirit who cries out: Abba, Father.

PASTORAL CORNER

As human beings we will always struggle before the mystery of God who is one, but also three. My image of the Trinity is of an omnipotent God beyond my own smallness, Jesus a dear friend always at my shoulder and the Holy Spirit living within me. All three necessary to each other. There are many images that we have of God. For some, God can be a distant figure, or something of a Santa Claus from whom we ask favours, or someone we only turn to in times of trouble!

This week take time to explore some of the ways that you have thought of God, during your life. Has your understanding changed over time? Reflect on the significant moments which led you to a new understanding of God.

PRAYER OF ST. EMILIE

St. Emilie, Good and generous labourer of the Gospel. You who were attentive to the call of the Spirit in the church and reached out to all peoples regardless of religion, race or colour, give us this spirit to reach out in love, so as to reveal by our lives the infinite love of the Father for all humanity.

St. Emilie, pray for us. AMEN

BIENVENUE: On this Feast of St Emilie De Vialar we welcome Bishop Don Sproston who will be the principal Celebrant at the 9.00 am Mass and also our visiting Priests from near and far. We also warmly welcome the Sisters of St Joseph of the Apparition, the Principal & Vice-principal of St Emilie Catholic School and other distinguished guests who are gathered here to celebrate with us another significant milestone in the history of the Parish of Canning Vale.

Saint Emilie De Vialar: Anne Marguerite Adelaide Emilie de Vialar was the eldest child and only daughter of Baron James Augustine de Vialar and his wife Antoinette, daughter of that Baron de Portal who was physician-in-ordinary to Louis XVIII and Charles X of France. She was born at Gaillac in Languedoc in 1797. At the age of fifteen she was removed from school in Paris to be companion to her father, now a widower, at Gaillac; but unhappily, differences arose between them because of Emilie's refusal to consider a suitable marriage.

For fifteen years, Emilie was the good angel of Gaillac, devoting herself to the care of children neglected by their parents and to the help of the poor generally. In 1832, her maternal grandfather died, leaving her a share of his estate which was quite a considerable fortune. She bought a large house at Gaillac and took possession of it with three companions. Others joined them and three months later, the archbishop authorized the Abbe to clothe twelve postulants with the religious habit. They called themselves the Congregation of Sisters of St. Joseph of the Apparition. Their work was to be the care of the needy, especially the sick, and the education of children. In 1835, she made her profession with seventeen other sisters, and received formal approval for the rule of the Congregation.

St Emilie passed away on August 24, 1856. The burden of her last testament to her daughters was "Love one another". Her canonisation took place in 1951; her feast is on 17th June.
