Entrance Antiphon: To you I call; for you will surely heed me, O God; turn your ear to me; hear my words. Guard me as the apple of your eye; in the shadow of your wings protect me.

First Reading A reading from the Prophet Isaiah 45:1, 4-6

Thus says the Lord to his anointed, to Cyrus, whom he has taken by his right hand to subdue nations before him and strip the loins of kings, to force gateways before him that their gates be closed no more: It is for the sake of my servant Jacob, of Israel my chosen one, that I have called you by your name, conferring a title though you do not know me. I am the Lord, unrivalled; there is no other God besides me. Though you do not know me, I arm you that men may know from the rising to the setting of the sun that, apart from me, all is nothing .

Responsorial Psalm Ps. 95

R. Give the Lord glory and honour

- O sing a new song to the Lord, sing to the Lord all the earth. Tell among the nations his glory and his wonders among all the peoples. (R)
- The Lord is great and worthy of praise, to be feared above all gods; the gods of the heathens are naught. It was the Lord who made the heavens. (R)
- Give the Lord, you families of peoples, give the Lord glory and power, give the Lord the glory of his name. Bring an offering and enter his courts. (R)
- Worship the Lord in his temple, O earth, tremble before him. Proclaim to the nations: 'God is king,' He will judge the peoples in fairness. (R)

Second Reading: A reading from the first letter of St Paul to the Thessalonians 1:1-5

From Paul, Silvanus and Timothy, to the Church in Thessalonika which is in God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ; wishing you grace and peace from God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ. We always mention you in our prayers and thank God for you all, and constantly remember before God our Father how you have shown your faith in action, worked for love and persevered through hope, in our Lord Jesus Christ. We know, brothers and sisters, that God loves you and that you have been chosen, because when we brought the Good News to you, it came to you not only as words, but as power and as the Holy Spirit and as utter conviction.

Gospel Acclamation: Alleluia, alleluia! Shine on the world like bright stars; you are offering it the word of life. Alleluia!

Gospel: A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew 22:15-21

The Pharisees went away to work out between them how to trap Jesus in what he said. And they sent their disciples to him, together with some Herodians, to say, 'Master, we know that you are an honest man and teach the way of God, in an honest way, and that you are not afraid of anyone, because a man's rank means nothing to you. 'Tell us your opinion, then. Is it permissible to pay taxes to Caesar or not?' But Jesus was aware of their malice and replied, 'You hypocrites! Why do you set this trap for me? Let me see the money you pay the tax with.' They handed him a denarius and he said, 'Whose head is this? Whose name?' 'Caesar's' they replied. He then said to them, 'Very well, give back to Caesar what belongs to Caesar - and to God what belongs to God.'

Memorial Acclamation: Save us, Saviour of the world, for by your Cross and Resurrection you have set us free .

Communion Antiphon: Behold, the eyes of the Lord are on those who fear him, who hope in his merciful love, to rescue their souls from death, to keep them alive in famine.

MASS INTENTIONS

All our Masses are being offered "pro populo" - for the intentions of the people of God.

Note: Mass intentions envelopes & notices for bulletin are to be submitted/mailed to the office by Wednesday 6pm.

The Pastoral Corner

This Sunday is World Mission Sunday, a day set aside for the Catholic Church throughout the world to publicly renew its commitment to the missionary movement. This week focuses on Mission so we should reflect on the readings of the day and think about the obligations that we have towards God and towards the State. We live in an increasingly secular society, where faith in God is often viewed as irrelevant and unnecessary. For many of us, there are increasing difficulties in living lives which balance our obligations to God and to society.

This week can you think of ways that you might be able to improve the integration of these aspects of your life? Think about what are the things that belong to God, and how easy do you find it giving back to God what belongs to God? In what ways do you do this?

Can you identify trends in the world today that might benefit from having Gospel values applied to them, and how might you actively promote some of these values?

22 Oct FRATELLI TUTTI - WHAT FUTURE FOR HUMANITY

A Zoom webinar with Fr Bruce Duncan giving an appraisal of the new encyclical, with Danusia Kaska responding and considering what it means for us in Australia. Thursday 22 October 7.30 to 8.30pm, Australian Eastern Summer Time. Ample time for questions and discussion will be given. Fr Bruce Duncan will talk about the significance of Fratelli tutti since the coronavirus has severely damaged economies everywhere, and why it is now even more urgent to build a better future. What is so different in the new encyclical to what the Pope said in Laudato Si' in 2015? He has taught about the history of Catholic social thought and movements at Yarra Theological Union in Melbourne for many years, and is Director of the ecumenical social advocacy network Social Policy Connections. Danusia Kaska is the Xavier Social Justice Network Coordinator at Xavier College, Melbourne, and is a member of the SPC board. For free ticket registration, please email Stefan Gigacz at: aci@australiancardijninstitute.org. You will then receive a link to join the webinar. The session will be recorded and questions can be submitted in advance or during the webinar. Click here for flyer. Further info: Stefan Gigacz 0491 077 033

22 Oct to 12 Nov UNPACKING THE GOSPEL OF MARK

Thursdays 10am to 12pm, Newman Siena Centre (Clune Lecture Theatre). The Gospel of Mark plays a crucial role in the Bible. In it, we see Christ fulfilling in himself the Old Testament hopes for a coming king, the Messiah, yet we also see the stark ways in which Jesus confounds expectations of what this king will do: he will suffer. Mark offers us a vivid portrayal of what authentic discipleship looks like for those who follow a rejected king and asks believers an important question: What will you do with your faith? Prepare for Advent and Christmas via this exploration of Mark's Gospel. Cost: $25. Presenter: Mr Joe Tedesco. Further info or to register, visit <http://cfe.org.au/courses-and-events/>, email cfe@perthcatholic.org.au, or call 08 9241 5221.

24 Oct CULTURAL DIVERSITY MASS

We live in a very diverse cultural country and it is important that as a community of faith we open the door to understanding and acceptance of what that looks like in our worshipping community. You are invited to join Auxiliary Bishop Donald Sproston at a Eucharistic Celebration for Cultural Diversity Mass on Saturday 24 October at 6pm in St Mary's Cathedral, Perth. Register at Eventbrite: CulturalDiversityMass2020.com and celebrate all cultures that make our church so vibrant. Dress in your cultural attire and enjoy this event with family and friends. There will be food and coffee available for purchase after Mass. Click here for flyer. Further info: Grace Kurniawan 08 9220 5950.

02 Nov to 16 Nov ADULT FAITH FOUNDATIONAL PROGRAMME – PART 3 - ON EARTH AS IT IS IN HEAVEN: THE LITURGY AND SACRAMENTS

Mondays 7pm to 8.30pm, Newman Siena Centre (Clune Lecture Theatre) and Online. As a pathway for the growth of our spiritual life laid out by the Church, the Liturgy and the Sacraments contribute to strengthening our relationship with God. However, for too many of us, they remain largely unexplained or in need of unpacking. This course will bring participants into a deeper understanding of the Liturgy and the Sacraments of the Church, with a particular focus on developing a stronger awareness of their purpose and impact in our lives. Over four terms, this four-part foundational programme will cover core topics of the Catholic tradition such as Church, the call to holiness liturgy, sacraments, Scriptures, missionary discipleship. Suggested Donation: $15. Presenter: Dr Margaret Scharf OP. Further info or to register, visit <http://cfe.org.au/courses-and-events/>, email cfe@perthcatholic.org.au, or 08 9241 5221.
