Entrance Antiphon: Let the hearts that seek the Lord rejoice; turn to the Lord and his strength; constantly seek his face.

First Reading A reading from the book of Exodus 22:20-26

The Lord said to Moses, 'Tell the sons of Israel this, "You must not molest the stranger or oppress him, for you lived as strangers in the land of Egypt. You must not be harsh with the widow, or with the orphan; if you are harsh with them, they will surely cry out to me, and be sure I shall hear their cry; my anger will flare and I shall kill you with the sword, your own wives will be widows, your own children orphans. 'If you lend money to any of my people, to any poor man among you, you must not play the usurer with him: you must not demand interest from him. 'If you take another's cloak as a pledge, you must give it back to him before sunset. It is all the covering he has; it is the cloak he wraps his body in; what else would he sleep in? If he cries to me, I will listen, for I am full of pity.'"

Responsorial Psalm Ps. 17

R. I love you, Lord, my strength

- I love you, Lord, my strength, my rock, my fortress, my saviour. My God is the rock where I take refuge; my shield, my mighty help, my stronghold. The Lord is worthy of all praise: when I call I am saved from my foes. (R)
- Long life to the Lord, my rock! Praised be the God who saves me. He has given great victories to his king and shown his love for his anointed. (R)

Second Reading: A reading from the first letter of St Paul to the Thessalonians 1:5-10

You observed the sort of life we lived when we were with you, which was for your instruction, and you were led to become imitators of us, and of the Lord; and it was with the joy of the Holy Spirit that you took to the gospel, in spite of the great opposition all round you. This has made you the great example to all believers in Macedonia and Achaia since it was from you that the word of the Lord started to spread – and not only throughout Macedonia and Achaia, for the news of your faith in God has spread everywhere. We do not need to tell other people about it: other people tell us how we started the work among you, how you broke with idolatry when you were converted to God and became servants of the real, living God; and how you are now waiting for Jesus, his Son, whom he raised from the dead, to come from heaven to save us from the retribution which is coming.

Gospel Acclamation: Alleluia, alleluia! All who love me will keep my words, and my Father will love them, and we will come to them. Alleluia!

Gospel: A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew 22:34-40

When the Pharisees heard that Jesus had silenced the Sadducees they got together and, to disconcert him, one of them put a question, 'Master, which is the greatest commandment of the Law?' Jesus said, 'You must love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind. This is the greatest and the first commandment. 'The second resembles it; you must love your neighbour as yourself. 'On these two commandments hang the whole Law, and the Prophets also.'

Memorial Acclamation: Save us, Saviour of the world, for by your Cross and Resurrection you have set us free.

Communion Antiphon: We will ring out our joy at your saving help and exult in the name of our God.

MASS INTENTIONS

All our Masses are being offered "pro populo" - for the intentions of the people of God.

Note: Mass intentions envelopes & notices for bulletin are to be submitted/emailed to the office by Wednesday 6pm.

The Pastoral Corner

In this week's Gospel, Jesus' words ought to align our response to God with our attitude towards people. It is not possible to love God and despise people. Both are needed to fulfil our faith for it to be authentic.

Which of these two parts of Jesus' great commandment do you find most easy to do; is it easier for you to love God and ignore those around you, or are you drawn to people but find it difficult to be attentive to God? Creating balance in our lives requires continual effort. In what ways do you achieve and maintain this balance?

After reflecting on how you have experienced God's love and how you have extended that love to others, look for opportunities this week to do that again.

Congratulations

We would like to congratulate Fr Jean-Noël MARIE upon his recent appointment as the Parish Priest of the Parish of Canning Vale. We wish him every blessing and pray that the Lord will continue to guide him and strengthen him in his mission as our shepherd, Father and guide especially during these uncertain and challenging times.

COMMUNICATIONS NEWSLETTER

22 Oct to 12 Nov UNPACKING THE GOSPEL OF MARK

Thursdays 10am to 12pm, Newman Siena Centre (Clune Lecture Theatre). The Gospel of Mark plays a crucial role in the Bible. In it, we see Christ fulfilling in himself the Old Testament hopes for a coming king, the Messiah, yet we also see the stark ways in which Jesus confounds expectations of what this king will do: he will suffer. Mark offers us a vivid portrayal of what authentic discipleship looks like for those who follow a rejected king and asks believers an important question: What will you do with your faith? Prepare for Advent and Christmas via this exploration of Mark's Gospel. Cost: $25. Presenter: Mr Joe Tedesco. Further info or to register, visit <http://cfe.org.au/courses-and-events/>, email cfe@perthcatholic.org.au, or call 08 9241 5221.

24 Oct CULTURAL DIVERSITY MASS

We live in a very diverse cultural country and it is important that as a community of faith we open the door to understanding and acceptance of what that looks like in our worshipping community. You are invited to join Auxiliary Bishop Donald Sproston at a Eucharistic Celebration for Cultural Diversity Mass on Saturday 24 October at 6pm in St Mary's Cathedral, Perth. Register at Eventbrite: CulturalDiversityMass2020.com and celebrate all cultures that make our church so vibrant. Dress in your cultural attire and enjoy this event with family and friends. There will be food and coffee available for purchase after Mass. Click here for flyer. Further info: Grace Kurniawan 08 9220 5950.

02 Nov to 16 Nov ADULT FAITH FOUNDATIONAL PROGRAMME – PART 3 - ON EARTH AS IT IS IN HEAVEN: THE LITURGY AND SACRAMENTS

Mondays 7pm to 8.30pm, Newman Siena Centre (Clune Lecture Theatre) and Online. As a pathway for the growth of our spiritual life laid out by the Church, the Liturgy and the Sacraments contribute to strengthening our relationship with God. However, for too many of us, they remain largely unexplained or in need of unpacking. This course will bring participants into a deeper understanding of the Liturgy and the Sacraments of the Church, with a particular focus on developing a stronger awareness of their purpose and impact in our lives. Over four terms, this four-part foundational programme will cover core topics of the Catholic tradition such as Church, the call to holiness liturgy, sacraments, Scriptures, missionary discipleship. Suggested Donation: $15. Presenter: Dr Margaret Scharf OP. Further info or to register, visit <http://cfe.org.au/courses-and-events/>, email cfe@perthcatholic.org.au, or 08 9241 5221.
