The Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ
Year C

Entrance Antiphon: He fed them with the finest wheat and satisfied them with honey from the rock.

First Reading: A reading from the book of Genesis (14:18-20)

Melchizedek king of Salem brought bread and wine; he was a priest of God Most High. He pronounced this blessing: 'Blessed be Abraham by God Most High, creator of heaven and earth, and blessed be God Most High for handing over your enemies to you.' And Abraham gave him a tithe of everything.

Responsorial Psalm: (Ps. 109)

R. You are a priest for ever, in the line of Melchizedek!

- The Lord's revelation to my Master: 'Sit on my right: I will put your foes beneath your feet.' (R)
- The Lord will send from Zion your sceptre of power: rule in the midst of all your foes. (R)
- A prince from the day of your birth on the holy mountains; from the womb before the daybreak I begot you. (R)
- The Lord has sworn an oath he will not change. 'You are a priest for ever, a priest like Melchizedek of old.' (R)

Second Reading: A reading from the letter of St Paul to the Corinthians (11:23-26)

This is what I received from the Lord, and in turn passed on to you: that on the same night that he was betrayed, the Lord Jesus took some bread, and thanked God for it and broke it, and he said, 'This is my body, which is for you; do this as a memorial of me.' In the same way he took the cup after supper, and said, 'This cup is the new covenant in my blood. Whenever you drink it, do this as a memorial of me.' Until the Lord comes, therefore, every time you eat this bread and drink this cup, you are proclaiming his death.

Gospel Acclamation: Alleluia, alleluia! I am the living bread from heaven, says the Lord; whoever eats this bread will live for ever. Alleluia!

Gospel: A reading from the holy Gospel according to Luke (9:11-17)

Jesus made the crowds welcome and talked to them about the kingdom of God; and he cured those who were in need of healing. It was late afternoon when the Twelve came to him and said, 'Send the people away, and they can go to the villages and farms round about to find lodging and food; for we are in a lonely place here.' He replied, 'Give them something to eat yourselves.' But they said, 'We have no more than five loaves and two fish, unless we are to go ourselves and buy food for all these people.' For there were about five thousand men. But he said to his disciples, 'Get them to sit down in parties of about fifty.' They did so and made them all sit down. Then he took the five loaves and the two fish, raised his eyes to heaven, and said the blessing over them; then he broke them and handed them to his disciples to distribute among the crowd. They all ate as much as they wanted, and when the scraps remaining were collected, they filled twelve baskets.

The Memorial Acclamation: When we eat this bread and drink this Cup, we proclaim your Death, O Lord, until you come again.

Communion Antiphon: Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood remains in me and I in him, says the Lord.

PASTORAL CORNER

In this week's Gospel, Jesus, his disciples and the crowd are away in 'a lonely place'. We are all in a lonely place in a sense, as we long for food, refuge and place to belong. As Catholics, the Eucharist is the place that satisfies these needs on our life journey. We understand the Gospel, in the context of the Eucharist, as being the way which Jesus feeds the people who hunger and thirst for real 'food' and real 'drink'.

As you approach Jesus within the community of the church, what kinds of things do you hunger for, and how does Jesus satisfy these hungers? Can you share the task of satisfying the hungers of others?

During this week be aware of your responsibility to feed others, within family and outside. Find a way to give practical help and support to someone in need.

PRAYER OF ST. EMILIE

St. Emilie, Good and generous labourer of the Gospel. You who were attentive to the call of the Spirit in the church and reached out to all peoples regardless of religion, race or colour, give us this spirit to reach out in love, so as to reveal by our lives the infinite love of the Father for all humanity.

St. Emilie, pray for us. AMEN

I would like to thank all of you who contributed to this remarkable success and unforgettable experience for all especially the Social Committee, our MC's, our Choirs, performers and musicians, our children and Youths who make us so proud and give us hope, Mrs Thuijs, Mr Munro and the School Community, the school children's choir ensemble, all those who provided food and all of you who attended in dazzling local colour. ### A Note of Appreciation from St Emilie School Principal:

Thank you Fr Jean-Noel and St Emilie's parishioners for the wonderful Mass and presentation in the hall on Sunday, celebrating St Emilie's Feast Day - it was very special and a real credit to all those who organised the day! The presence of the beautiful Sisters of St Joseph of the Apparition was a highlight, as was the presence of Bishop Don, Father Patricio and Father Giovanni. On Monday, St Emilie's children participated in a variety of activities celebrating the life of St Emilie and on Tuesday, we also celebrated Mass together. Fr Jean-Noel's homily was really superb - he captured the essence of the story of St Emilie and children were very engaged! We wish you all a great week ahead.

THANK YOU: The Youths of our Parish would like to thank all those who so generously supported their fund-raising Food & Bake Sale last Sunday. They raised $1542. All proceeds will go towards helping our local Youths attend the upcoming ACYF Conference. Please continue to support our Youths.
