MASS INTENTIONS

During the month of November, we remember and pray for the faithful departed of our families and friends. All Masses will be offered for the requested souls of all our faithful departed, written in The Book of Remembrance.

Note:

Mass intentions envelopes & notices for bulletin are to be submitted/emailed to the office by Wednesday 6pm.

Entrance Antiphon: Let my prayer come into your presence. Incline your ear to my cry for help, O Lord.

First Reading: A reading from the book of the Kings (17:10-16)

Elijah the Prophet went off to Sidon. And when he reached the city gate, there was a widow gathering sticks; addressing her he said, 'Please bring a little water in a vessel for me to drink.' She was setting off to bring it when he called after her. 'Please' he said 'bring me a scrap of bread in your hand.' 'As the Lord your God lives,' she replied 'I have no baked bread, but only a handful of meal in a jar and a little oil in a jug; I am just gathering a stick or two to go and prepare this for myself and my son to eat, and then we shall die.' But Elijah said to her, 'Do not be afraid, go and do as you have said; but first make a little scone of it for me and bring it to me, and then make some yourself and for your son. For thus the Lord speaks, the God of Israel: "Jar of meal shall not be spent, jug of oil shall not be emptied, before the day when the Lord sends rain on the face of the earth." The woman went and did as Elijah told her and they ate the food, she, himself and her son. The jar of meal was not spent nor the jug of oil emptied, just as the Lord had foretold through Elijah.

Responsorial Psalm: (Ps.145)

R. Praise the Lord, my soul !

- It is the Lord who keeps faith for ever, who is just to those who are oppressed. It is he who gives bread to the hungry, the Lord, who sets prisoners free. (R)
- It is the Lord who gives sight to the blind, who raises up those who are bowed down. It is the Lord who loves the just, the Lord, who protects the stranger. (R)
- The Lord upholds the widow and orphan but thwarts the path of the wicked. The Lord will reign for ever, Zion's God, from age to age. (R)

Second Reading: A reading from the letter to the Hebrews (9:24-28)

It is not as though Christ had entered a man-made sanctuary which was only modelled on the real one; but it was heaven itself, so that he could appear in the actual presence of God on our behalf. And he does not have to offer himself again and again, like the high priest going into the sanctuary year after year with the blood that is not his own, or else he would have had to suffer over and over again since the world began. Instead of that, he has made his appearance once and for all, now at the end of the last age, to do away with sin by sacrificing himself. Since men only die once, and after that comes judgement, so Christ, too, offers himself only once to take the faults of many on himself, and when he appears a second time, it will not be to deal with sin but to reward with salvation those who are waiting for him.

Gospel Acclamation: Alleluia, alleluia! Happy are the poor in spirit; the kingdom of heaven is theirs! Alleluia!

Gospel: A reading from the holy Gospel according to Mark (12:28-34)

In his teaching Jesus said, 'Beware of the scribes who like to walk about in long robes, to be greeted obsequiously in the market squares, to take the front seats in the synagogues and the places of honour at banquets; these are the men who swallow the property of widows, while making a show of lengthy prayers. The more severe will be the sentence they receive.' He sat down opposite the treasury and watched the people putting money into the treasury, and many of the rich put in a great deal. A poor widow came and put in two small coins, the equivalent of a penny. Then he called his disciples and said to them, 'I tell you solemnly, this poor widow has put in more than all who have contributed to the treasury; for they have all put in money they had over, but she from the little she had has put in everything she possessed, all she had to live on.'

The Memorial Acclamation: We proclaim your death, O Lord, and profess your resurrection until you come again.

Communion Antiphon: The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want. Fresh and green are the pastures where he gives me repose, near restful waters he leads me.

PASTORAL CORNER

What a detailed and interesting picture is painted in this scene of Jesus life. In the Gospel we see him seated watching the people make their offerings to the temple treasury. Some gave lots of money, but Jesus focuses the attention of his disciples on the figure of the poor widow in the midst of the throng, who gives all she has, about two one cent coins, and is swallowed up by the crowd. She must have felt self-conscious, how did other people treat her, how did she feel we wonder? These are questions that we can reflect on, comparing the widows small but open-hearted gesture, contrasting with the loud, flamboyant and expansive gestures of the rich in their giving from their abundance. This week focus on the importance of giving generously; not from your excess but from your own needs, showing your faith in a providential God.

Buy-A-Brick Campaign:

Please pick up a donation envelope from the foyer. All proceeds will fund St. Emilie building project. You also may like to know, that you can also contribute by buying a CD from the piety stall, or putting a donation into the collection barrel in the foyer.
