Entrance Antiphon: If you, O Lord, should mark iniquities, Lord, who could stand? But with you is found forgiveness, O God of Israel.

First Reading: A reading from the book of Wisdom (7:7-11)

I prayed, and understanding was given me; I entreated, and the spirit of Wisdom came to me. I esteemed her more than sceptres and thrones; compared with her, I held riches as nothing. I reckoned no priceless stone to be her peer, for compared with her, all gold is a pinch of sand, and beside her, silver ranks as mud. I loved her more than health or beauty, preferred her to the light, since her radiance never sleeps. In her company all good things came to me, at her hands riches not be numbered.

Responsorial Psalm: (Ps.89)

R. Fill us with your love O Lord, and we will sing for joy!

- Make us know the shortness of our life that we may gain wisdom of heart. Lord, relent! Is your anger for ever? Show pity to your servants. (R)
- In the morning, fill us with your love; we shall exult and rejoice all our days. Give us joy to balance our affliction for the years when we knew misfortune. (R)
- Show forth your works to your servants; let your glory shine on their children. Let the favour of the Lord be upon us: give success to the work of our hands. (R)

Second Reading: A reading from the letter to the Hebrews (4:12-13)

The word of God is something alive and active: it cuts like any double-edged sword but more finely: it can slip through the place where the soul is divided from the spirit, or joints from the marrow; it can judge the secret emotions and thoughts. No created thing can hide from him; everything is uncovered and open to the eyes of the one to whom we must give account of ourselves.

Gospel Acclamation: Alleluia, alleluia! Happy the poor in spirit; the kingdom of heaven is theirs! Alleluia!

Gospel: A reading from the holy Gospel according to Mark (10:17-30)

Jesus was setting out on a journey when a man ran up, knelt before him and put this question to him, 'Good master, what must I do to inherit eternal life?' Jesus said to him, 'Why do you call me good? No one is good but God alone. You know the commandments: You must not kill, You must not commit adultery; You must not steal; You must not bring false witness; You must not defraud; Honour your father and mother.' And he said to him, 'Master, I have kept all these from my earliest days.' Jesus looked steadily at him and loved him, and he said, 'There is one thing you lack. God and sell everything you own and give the money to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; then come, follow me.' But his face fell at these words and he went away sad, for he was a man of great wealth. Jesus looked around and said to his disciples, 'How hard it is for those who have riches to enter the kingdom of God!' The disciples were astounded by these words, but Jesus insisted, 'My children,' he said to them, 'how hard it is to enter the kingdom of God! It is easier for a camel to pass through the eye of a needle than for a rich man to enter the kingdom of God.' They were more astonished than ever. 'In that case' they said to one another 'who can be saved?' Jesus gazed at them. 'For men' he said 'it is impossible, but not for God: because everything is possible for God.'

The Memorial Acclamation: We proclaim your death, O Lord, and profess your resurrection until you come again.

Communion Antiphon: The rich suffer want and go hungry, but those who seek the Lord lack no blessing.

PASTORAL CORNER

The Readings today speak to us about God's commitment to human partnership and the welfare of all creation as well as Jesus' commitment to children, the model for all who belong to the kingdom of heaven. We are made in the image and likeness of God.

In the Gospel Jesus points to the example of children not because they are naive but because they are more open to reality and to the workings of the spirit than adults. Think about the major commitments we make to each other, particularly in marriage, but also think about Jesus' commitment to us.

How do we reflect this divine care for creation and our common humanity in the everyday moments of our lives?

Buy-A-Brick Campaign: Please pick up a donation envelope from the foyer. All proceeds will fund St. Emilie building project.

Rosary to Our Lady: The Rosary will be recited before every Mass in the month of October. If you are interested in leading in the recitation, please put your name on the roster list at the Church foyer.

Archdiocesan Marriage Mass, Saturday, October 27 @ 10am, St Mary's Cathedral. All parishioners are warmly invited to attend this special Mass. A blessing will be bestowed on all married couples. Do you know a couple celebrating a milestone anniversary 25, 30, 40, 50, 60 or even 70 years in 2018? The Bishops would like to give these couples a special commemorative certificate as part of the celebration. Couples can register for a certificate at www.brushfire.com/marriage-mass/445456.

Dear Parishioners,

We hope this little note finds you all well and that these busy weeks leading up to the Christmas season are filled with much to feel happy, grateful and hope-filled about. The term has started very well for us, with staff and students looking forward to all that the next nine weeks holds. This note is to make you aware of a whole school event, that is to take place on FRIDAY 19TH OCTOBER, 4.30pm - 7.00pm. We are holding a family COLOUR RUN/WALK where participants make their way around a one and a half kilometre course that will involve the use of the shared gate on Philadelphia Road. Parking will be at a premium, and because the time clashes with the Friday 6.00pm Mass, you are asked to please be aware that if you intend coming to the Friday night Mass, you will need to:

1. Only enter via the school's double entrance gates (not the black automated slider gate).
2. Only exit via the black, automated Parish slider gate.

We thank you in advance for the understanding and patience we will need from all members of the community on this night and we wish you and your families all the very best for the remainder of the year.

Yours sincerely,

Tania Thuijs

Principal, St Emilie's Catholic Primary School
