MASS INTENTIONS

During the month of November, we remember and pray for the faithful departed of our families and friends. All Masses will be offered for the requested souls of all our faithful departed, written in The Book of Remembrance.

Note:

Mass intentions envelopes & notices for bulletin are to be submitted/emailed to the office by Wednesday 6pm.

Entrance Antiphon: The Lord said: I think thoughts of peace and not of affliction. You will call upon me, and I will answer you, and I will lead back your captives from every place.

First Reading: A reading from the prophet Daniel (12:1-13)

‘At that time Michael will stand up, the great prince who mounts guard over your people. There is going to be a time of great distress, unparalleled since nations first came into existence. When that time comes, your own people will be spared, all those whose names are found written in the Book.

Of those who lie sleeping in the dust of the earth many will awake, some to everlasting life, some to shame and everlasting disgrace. The learned will shine as brightly as the vault of heaven, and those who have instructed many in virtue, as bright as stars for all eternity.’

Responsorial Psalm: (Ps.15)

R. Keep me safe O God; you are my hope

- O Lord, it is you who are my portion and cup; it is you yourself who are my prize. I keep the Lord ever in my sight: since he is at my right hand, I shall stand firm. (R)
- And so my heart rejoices, my soul is glad; even my body shall rest in safety. For you will not leave my soul among the dead, nor let your beloved know decay. (R)
- You will show me the path of life, the fullness of joy in your presence, at your right hand happiness for ever. (R)

Second Reading: A reading from the letter to the Hebrews (10:11-14, 18)

All the priests stand at their duties every day, offering over and over again the same sacrifices which are quite incapable of taking sins away. Christ, on the other hand, has offered one single sacrifice for sins, and then taken his place for ever, at the right hand of God, where he is now waiting until his enemies are made into a footstool for him.

By virtue of that one single offering, he has achieved the eternal perfection of all whom he is sanctifying. When all sins have been forgiven, there can be no more sin offerings.

Gospel Acclamation: Alleluia, alleluia! Be watchful, pray constantly, that you may be worthy to stand before the Son of Man. Alleluia!

Gospel: A reading from the holy Gospel according to Mark (13:24-32)

Jesus said to his disciples: ‘In those days, after the time of distress, the sun will be darkened, the moon will lose its brightness, the stars will come falling from heaven and the powers in the heavens will be shaken.

‘And then they will see the Son of Man coming in the clouds with great power and glory; then too he will send the angels to gather his chosen from the four winds, from the ends of the world to the ends of heaven.

‘Take the fig tree as a parable: as soon as its twigs grow supple and its leaves come out, you know that summer is near. So with you, when you see these things happening: know that he is near, at the very gates. ‘I tell you solemnly, before this generation has passed away all these things will have taken place. Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will not pass away. ‘But as for that day or hour, nobody knows it, neither the angels of heaven, nor the Son; no one but the Father.

The Memorial Acclamation: Save us, Savior of the world, for by your Cross and Resurrection you have set us free.

Communion Antiphon: To be near God is my happiness, to place my hope in God the Lord.

TOTAL COLLECTION FOR THE BUILDING PROJECT AT THE END OF OCTOBER IS:

($ 7,528.70)

(Includes Buy-A-Brick, CD sales and Barrel collection)

PASTORAL CORNER

The Gospel records practically the final message that Jesus shared with his disciples before his passion, so it is not surprising that he concentrates on helping them to understand something of the end times. This language is termed 'apocalyptic', and was a literary style common at the time. We need to remember to try not to understand it in the literal sense, but focus on the message that was being conveyed: to live in anticipation of the end of our own life or times. Jesus tells his disciples to spread the Good News and live in anticipation of the time when God's plan comes to fruition. What does this mean to us? What might the world look like if God was again 'Lord of all Creation? What signs of growth, life, death or change do you see around you – in the natural world, your community, your family, yourself? What helps you to live in an expectant and watchful way?

Buy-A-Brick Campaign: Please pick up a donation envelope from the foyer. All proceeds will fund our building project. You also may like to know, that you can also contribute by buying a CD from the piety stall, or putting a donation into the collection barrel in the foyer.
