First Reading: A reading from the prophet Jeremiah (31:7-9)

The Lord says this: Shout with joy for Jacob! Hail the chief of nations!

Proclaim! Praise! Shout! 'The Lord has saved his people, the remnant of Israel!' See, I will bring them back from the land of the North and gather them from the far ends of earth; all of them: the blind and the lame, women with child, women in labour: a great company returning here. They had left in tears, I will comfort them as I lead them back; I will guide them to streams of water, by a smooth path where they will not stumble. For I am a father to Israel, and Ephraim is my first-born son.

Responsorial Psalm: (Ps.125)

R. The Lord has done great things for us; we are filled with joy.

- When the Lord delivered Zion from bondage, it seemed like a dream. Then was our mouth filled with laughter, on our lips there were songs. (R)
- The heathens themselves said: 'What marvels the Lord worked for them!' What marvels the Lord worked for us! Indeed we were glad. (R)
- Deliver us, O Lord, from our bondage as streams in dry land. Those who are sowing in tears will sing when they reap. (R)
- They go out, they go out, full of tears, carrying seed for the sowing: they come back, they come back, full of song, carrying their sheaves. (R)

Second Reading: A reading from the letter to the Hebrews (5:1-6)

Every high priest has been taken out of mankind and is appointed to act for men in their relations with God, to offer gifts and sacrifices for sins; and so he can sympathise with those who are ignorant or uncertain because he too lives in the limitations of weakness. That is why he has to make sin offerings for himself as well as for the people. No one takes this honour on himself, but each one is called by God, as Aaron was. Nor did Christ give himself the glory of becoming high priest, but he had it from the one who said to him: You are my son, today I have become your father, and in another test: You are a priest of the order of Melchizedek, and for ever.

Gospel Acclamation: Alleluia, alleluia! Our saviour Jesus Christ has done away with death, and brought us life through his gospel. Alleluia!

Gospel: A reading from the holy Gospel according to Mark (10:46-52)

As Jesus left Jericho with his disciples and a large crowd, Bartimaeus (this is, the son of Timaeus), a blind beggar, was sitting by the side of the road. When he heard that it was Jesus of Nazareth, he began to shout and to say, 'Son of David, Jesus, have pity on me.' And many of them scolded him and told him to keep quiet, but he only shouted all the louder, 'Son of David, have pity on me.' Jesus stopped and said, 'Call him here.' So they called blind man. 'Courage, they said, 'get up, he is calling you.' So throwing off his cloak, he jumped up and went to Jesus. Then Jesus spoke, 'What do you want me to do for you?' 'Rabbuni,' the blind man said to him, 'Master, let me see again.' Jesus said to him, 'Go, your faith has saved you.' And immediately his sight returned and he followed him along the road.

The Memorial Acclamation: We proclaim your death, O Lord, and profess your resurrection until you come again.

Communion Antiphon: We will ring out our joy at your saving help and exult in the name of our God.

PASTORAL CORNER

We find Bartimaeus in today's Gospel story, a blind beggar, sitting beside the road, crying out for Jesus who is passing by on his way up to Jerusalem. Asking to be made whole and to receive his sight, Bartimaeus is told by Jesus to go on his way, as his faith has made him well. He receives his sight and follows Jesus along the road.

We can see how the 1st & 2nd readings match in the Gospel. Jesus has become the flesh and blood messenger of the way to salvation, stripping away and lifting the blindness from those who cannot see and setting them down on the road to follow him. Let's put ourselves in the place of Bartimaeus. How would you respond to Jesus asking you to come closer? What would you ask of Jesus and what are your blind spots?
