Entrance Antiphon

The Lord has truly risen, alleluia. To him be glory and power for all ages of eternity, alleluia, alleluia.

First Reading Acts (10:34, 37-43)

Peter addressed Cornelius and his household: 'You must have heard about the recent happenings in Judaea: about Jesus of Nazareth and how he began in Galilee, after John had been preaching baptism. God had anointed him with the Holy Spirit and with power, and because God was with him, Jesus went about doing good and curing all who had fallen into the power of the devil. Now I, and those with me, can witness to everything he did throughout the countryside of Judaea and in Jerusalem itself: and also to the fact that they killed him by hanging him on a tree, yet three days afterwards, God raised him to life and allowed him to be seen, not by the whole people but only by certain witnesses God had chosen beforehand. Now we are those witnesses - we have eaten and drunk with him after his resurrection from the dead— and he has ordered us to proclaim this to his people and to tell them that God has appointed him to judge everyone, alive or dead. It is to him that all the prophets bear this witness: that all who believe in Jesus will have their sins forgiven through his name'.

Responsorial Psalm Psalm 117:1-2, 16-17, 22-23, R.v.24

R. This is the day the Lord has made, let us rejoice, and be glad.

- Give thanks to the Lord for he is good, for his love endures forever. Let the family of Israel say: "His love endures for ever". (R)
- The Lord's right hand has triumphed; his right hand raised me. The Lord's right hand has triumphed; I shall not die, I shall live and recount his deeds. (R)
- The stone which the builders rejected has become the corner stone. This is the work of the Lord, a marvel in our eyes. (R)

Second Reading Letter of St. Paul to the Colossians (3:1-4)

Since you have been brought back to true life with Christ, you must look for the things that are in heaven, where Christ is, sitting at God's right hand. Let your thoughts be on heavenly things, not on the things that are on the earth, because you have died, and now the life you have is hidden with Christ in God. But when Christ is revealed—and he is your life - you too will be revealed in all your glory with him.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia! Christ has become our paschal sacrifice; let us feast with joy in the Lord. Alleluia!

Gospel John (20:1-9)

It was very early on the first day of the week and still dark, when Mary of Magdala came to the tomb. She saw that the stone had been moved away from the tomb and came running to Simon Peter and the other disciple, the one Jesus loved. 'They have taken the Lord out of the tomb' she said and we don't know where they have put him. 'So Peter set out with the other disciple to go to the tomb. They ran together, but the other disciple, running faster than Peter, reached the tomb first; he bent down and saw the linen cloths lying on the ground, but did not go in. Simon Peter who was following now came up, went right into the tomb, saw the linen cloth on the ground, and also the cloth that had been over his head; this was not the linen cloths but rolled up in a place by itself. Then the other disciple who had reached the tomb first also went in; he saw and he believed. Till this moment they had failed to understand the teaching of scripture, that he must rise from the dead.

The Memorial Acclamation

Save us, Saviour of the world, for by your Cross and Resurrection you have set us free.

Communion Antiphon

Christ our Passover has been sacrificed, alleluia; therefore let us keep the feast with the unleavened bread of purity and truth, alleluia, alleluia.

Easter Greetings

On this glorious Sunday of the Resurrection of our Lord Jesus Christ, Fr Jean-Noël and Fr Giovanni would like to wish all our Parishioners, their families and friends a very happy and blessed Easter.

With heartfelt gratitude, I would like to thank all those who have contributed in making our Easter celebrations so prayerful and so uplifting especially our choir and musicians, ushers, greeters, acolytes and altar servers, sacristans, our catechists and all those who quietly but resolutely continue to serve and support our Parish. We are indeed blessed with such selfless and loving followers of Christ.

Easter brings so many promises of God to us, life is indeed stronger than death, love can overcome hate, goodness ultimately triumphs over evil and eternity and glory with God in Heaven are our destiny.

May His love and His peace fill our hearts, our lives, our homes and our families. May the Risen Christ bless each and every one of you and your loved ones.

Christ is risen, He is risen indeed !

Fr Jean-Noël Marie Parish Administrator

Easter Vigil: We start outside and follow the priest into the darkened church at the Easter Vigil because as Christians, we are called to follow the 'Light of Christ' into the darkened world; lighting our own lights as we enter. Worrying about reserving seats, etc. distracts us from entering fully into celebrating the resurrection of our Lord. Please come in quietly, moving into the pews to allow others especially the elderly to find a place at the end of the pews.

Sacrament of Confirmation: Attention parents of parish children being prepared for the sacrament. Confirmation will take place over the weekend of 19th, 20th May 2018, at the 6pm and 9am masses. The Mass Register will now be available from Saturday 7 April, in the Church Foyer for parents to choose which Mass they would like their child to attend. To register please write in your child's name at the Mass of your choice. Please contact Lyn Harkins at lhar-kins@iinet.net.au or 0404 325 900 if you have any queries.

St. Emilie Parish Religious Education Program for children attending Public Schools: The Program offers formation for children from Year 1 to Year 7, and preparation for the Sacraments of 1st Reconciliation, 1st Eucharist and Confirmation. Classes take place after school on Tuesdays, 4–5pm in the Hall. Term 1 has begun, but enrolments can still be made.

St. Emilie Charismatic prayer group: meet every 2nd and 4th Saturday of the month in the mini school hall from 4.30pm to 6pm. For further details, contact Lloyd Rego (0456635768), Colin Sanctis (0420561350) or Sonia Pinto (0420841851).

St. Vincent De Paul Distribution Centre: urgently needs single blankets, single sheets, dinner sets, pots & pans, frying pans and cooking utensils for emergency relief orders. Please contact Cynthia Gauci on 0892564264 / 0430776648 or Rod Thompson on 0894552535.
