Sunday: 26 August 2018 7:15am:

- For the souls of George Corriea (recently deceased).

9:00am:

- ♦ Birthday Blessings for Adolf D'souza.
- For the people of Kerela, India suffering due to major floods and landslides engulfing most of the state.

Entrance Antiphon: Turn your ear, O Lord, and answer me; save the servant who trusts in you, my God. Have mercy on me, O Lord, for I cry to you all the day long.

First Reading: A reading from the book of Joshua (24:1-2, 15-18)

Joshua gathered all the tribes of Israel together at Shechem; then he called the elders, leaders, judges and scribes of Israel, and they presented themselves before God. Then Joshua said to all the people: 'If you will not serve the Lord, choose today whom you wish to serve, whether the gods that your ancestors served beyond the River, or the gods of the Amorites in whose land you are now living. As for me and my House, we will serve the Lord.' The people answered, 'We have no intention of deserting the Lord our God who brought us and our ancestors out of the land of Egypt, the house of slavery, who worked those great wonders before our eyes and preserved us all along the way we travelled and among all the peoples through whom we journeyed. We too will serve the Lord, for he is our God.'

Responsorial Psalm: (Ps. 33)

R. Taste and see the goodness of the Lord.

- I will bless the Lord at all times, his praise always on my lips; in the Lord my soul shall make its boast. The humble shall hear and be glad. (R)
- The Lord turns his face against the wicked to destroy their remembrance from the earth. The Lord turns his eyes to the just and his ears to their appeal. (R)
- They call and the Lord hears and rescues them in all their distress. The Lord is close to the broken-hearted; those whose spirit is crushed he will save. (R)
- Many are the trials of the just man but from them all the Lord will rescue him. He will keep guard over all his bones, not one of his bones shall be broken. (R)
- Evil brings death to the wicked; those who hate the good are doomed. The Lord ransoms the souls of his servants. Those who hide in him shall not be condemned. (R)

Second Reading: A reading from the letter of St Paul to the Ephesians (5:21-32)

Give way to one another in obedience to Christ. Wives should regard their husbands as they regard the Lord, since as Christ is head of the Church and saves the whole body, so is a husband the head of his wife. And as the Church submits to Christ, so should wives submit to their husbands, in everything. Husbands should love their wives just as Christ loved the Church and sacrificed himself for her to make her holy. He made her clean by washing her in water with a form of words, so that when he took her to himself she would be glorious, with no speck or wrinkle or anything like that, but holy and faultless. In the same way, husbands must love their wives as they love their own bodies; for a man to love his wife is for him to love himself. A man never hates his own body, but he feeds it and looks after it; and that is the way Christ treats the Church, because it is his body – and we are its living parts. For this reason, a man must leave his father and mother and be joined to his wife, and the two will become one body. This mystery has many implications; but I am saying it applies to Christ and the Church.

Gospel Acclamation: Alleluia, alleluia! Your words Lord, are spirit and life: you have the words of everlasting life. Alleluia!

Gospel: A reading from the holy Gospel according to John (6:60-69)

After hearing his doctrine many of the followers of Jesus said, 'This is intolerable language. How could anyone accept it?' Jesus was aware that his followers were complaining about it and said, 'Does this upset you? What if you should see the Son of Man ascend to where he was before? 'It is the spirit that gives life, the flesh has nothing to offer. The words I have spoken to you are spirit and they are life. But there are some of you who do not believe.' For Jesus knew from the outset those who did not believe, and who it was that would betray him. He went on, 'This is why I told you that no one could come to me unless the Father allows him.' After this, many of his disciples left him and stopped going with him. Then Jesus said to the Twelve, 'What about you, do you want to go away too?' Simon Peter answered, 'Lord, who shall we go to? You have the message of eternal life, and we believe; we know that you are the Holy One of God.'

The Memorial Acclamation: We proclaim your death, O Lord, and profess your resurrection until you come again.

Communion Antiphon: Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life, says the Lord, and I will raise him up on the last day.

PASTORAL CORNER

Jesus and Joshua gave their people a choice - the same choice that they each had been asked to make at the beginning of their ministry to the people of Israel.

It is the choice that we also are each asked to make - a daily re-commitment to the will of God. Past choices can become old and partially forgotten, or half-heartedly kept. They need to be revisited regularly to be revitalised. We need to keep on choosing Jesus, choosing to serve God for he is our God. This freedom to choose is essential to the Christian message.

This week reflect on the following questions. What made you choose to follow Christ? What are the alternatives that the world offers, and how attractive are they? What are the teachings of Jesus that you find most challenging?

104th World Day of Migrants and Refugees - Sunday, 26th August:

We live in a very diverse cultural country and it is important that as a community of faith, we open the door to understanding and acceptance of what that might look like in our worshipping communities. Message of His Holiness Pope Francis: "Welcoming, protecting, promoting and integrating migrants and refugees."

Shrine Time: for Young Adults this Sunday, 26th August from 7.30—8.30 pm at 9 Talus Drive, Mt. Richon.
