Ordinary Time

St. Emilie, Good and generous labourer of the Gospel. You who were attentive to the call of the Spirit in the church and reached out to all peoples regardless of religion, race or colour, give us this spirit to reach out in love, so as to reveal by our lives the infinite love of the Father for all humanity. St. Emilie, pray for us. AMEN

Entrance Antiphon: All that you have done to us, O Lord, you have done with true judgement, for we have sinned against you and not obeyed your commandments. But give glory to your name and deal with us according to the bounty of your mercy.

First Reading: A reading from the book of Wisdom (2:12, 17-20)

The Lord came down in the Cloud. He spoke with Moses, but took some of the spirit that was on him and put it on the seventy elders. When the spirit came on them they prophesied, but not again. Two men had stayed back in the camp; one was called Eldad and the other Medad. The spirit came down on them; though they had not gone to the Tent, their names were enrolled among the rest. These began to prophesy in the camp. The young man ran to tell this to Moses, 'Look,' he said 'Eldad and Medad are prophesying in the camp.' Then said Joshua the son of Nun, who had served Moses from his youth, 'My Lord Moses, stop them!' Moses answered him, 'Are you jealous on my account? If only the whole people of the Lord were prophets, and the Lord gave his Spirit to them all!'

Responsorial Psalm: (Ps. 18)

R. The precepts of the Lord give joy to the heart

- The law of the Lord is perfect, it revives the soul. The rule of the Lord is to be trusted, it gives wisdom to the simple. (R)
- The fear of the Lord is holy, abiding for ever. The decrees of the Lord are truth and all of them just. (R)
- So in them your servant finds instruction; great reward is in their keeping. But who can detect all his errors? From hidden faults acquit me. (R)
- From presumption restrain your servant and let it not rule me. Then shall I be blameless, clean from grave sin. (R)

Second Reading: A reading from the letter of St. James (5:1-6)

An answer for the rich. Start crying, weep for the miseries that are coming to you. Your wealth is all rotting, your clothes are all eaten up by moths. All your gold and your silver are corroding away, and the same corrosion will be your own sentence, and eat into your body. It was a burning fire that you stored up as your treasure for the last days. Labourers mowed your fields, and you cheated them – listen to the wages that you kept back, calling out; realise that the cries of the reapers have reached the ears of the Lord of hosts. On earth you have had a life of comfort and luxury; in the time of slaughter you went on eating to your heart's content. It was you who condemned the innocent and killed them; they offered you no resistance.

Gospel Acclamation: Alleluia, alleluia! Your word, O Lord, is truth: make us holy in the truth. Alleluia!

Gospel: A reading from the holy Gospel according to Mark (9:28-43, 45, 47-48)

John said to Jesus, 'Master, we saw a man who is not one of us casting out devils in your name; and because he was not one of us we tried to stop him.' But Jesus said, 'You must not stop him; no one who works a miracle in my name is likely to speak evil of me. Anyone who is not against us is for us. 'If anyone gives you a cup of water to drink just because you belong to Christ, then I tell you solemnly, he will most certainly not lose his reward. 'But anyone who is an obstacle to bring down one of these little ones who have faith, would be better thrown into the sea with a great millstone round his neck. 'And if your hand should cause you to sin, cut it off; it is better for you to enter into life crippled, than to have two hands and go to hell, into the fire that cannot be put out. And if your foot should cause to sin, cut it off; it is better for you to enter into life lame, than to have two feet and be thrown into hell. 'And if your eye should cause you to sin, tear it out; it is better for you to enter into the kingdom of God with one eye, than to have two eyes and be thrown into hell where their worm does not die nor their fire go out,'

The Memorial Acclamation: We proclaim your death, O Lord, and profess your resurrection until you come again.

Communion Antiphon: Remember your word to your servant, O Lord, by which you have given me hope. This is my comfort when I am brought low.

PASTORAL CORNER

One of the saddest facts of Christianity must surely be the divisions and in-fighting that occur between groups of differing Christian denominations or even groups within the same church. The Holy Spirit often works in and through people who are outside the expected. How open are we to others?

Can you think of a time when you mistrusted or misjudged someone who was outside your group, or made efforts to welcome someone new and different? In today's gospel Jesus is calling us to examine just how tolerant we are of others with a differing faith experience. How well do we reflect Jesus' generosity of spirit? He wants us to learn to be tolerant of both our own and other people's faults and their gifts – that means celebrating their successes and forgiving their failings.

Buy-A-Brick Campaign: Please pick up a donation envelope from the foyer. All proceeds will fund St. Emilie building project.
