PARISH MASS & PRAYER SCHEDULE

Weekend Mass: Sat: 6.30pm Sun: 7.30am, 9.30am & 5pm

Adoration & Rosary: Tue: 9 - 10am

Weekday Mass: Tues-Fri: 6pm Wednesday: 9am (Except 1st Wed, at 8am)

Legion Of Mary: Wed 9.30am (excluding 1st Wed, at 9am)

Entrance Antiphon: I am the salvation of the people, says the Lord. Should they cry to me in any distress, I will hear them, and I will be their Lord for ever.

First Reading: A reading from the book of Wisdom (2:12, 17-20)

The godless say to themselves, 'Let us lie in wait for the virtuous man, since he annoys us and opposes our way of life, reproaches us for our breaches of the law and accuses us of playing false to our upbringing. Let us see if what he says is true, let us observe what kind of end he himself will have. If the virtuous man is God's son, God will take his part and rescue him from the clutches of his enemies. Let us test him with cruelty and with torture, and thus explore this gentleness of his and put his endurance to the proof. Let us condemn him to a shameful death since he will be looked after – we have his word for it.'

Responsorial Psalm: (Ps. 114)

R: The Lord upholds my life

- O God, save me by your name; by your power, uphold my cause. O God, hear my prayer; listen to the words of my mouth. (R)
- For proud men have risen against me, ruthless men seek my life. They have no regard for God. (R)
- But I have God for my help. The Lord upholds my life. I will sacrifice to you with willing heart and praise your name for it is good. (R)

Second Reading: A reading from the letter of St James(3:16-4:3)

Wherever you find jealousy and ambition, you find disharmony, and wicked things of every kind being done; whereas the wisdom that comes down from above is essentially something pure; it also makes for peace, and is kindly and considerate; it is full of compassion and shows itself by doing good; nor is there any trace of partiality or hypocrisy in it. Peacemakers, when they work for peace, sow the seeds which will bear fruit in holiness. Where do these wars and battles between yourselves first start? Isn't it precisely in the desires fighting inside your own selves? You want something and you haven't got it; so you are prepared to kill. You have an ambition that you cannot satisfy; so you fight to get your way by force. Why you don't have what you want is because you don't pray for it; when you do pray and don't get it, it is because you have not prayed properly, you have prayed for something to indulge your own desires.

Gospel Acclamation: Alleluia, alleluia! God has called us with the gospel to share in the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ. Alleluia!

Gospel: A reading from the holy Gospel according to Mark (9:30-37)

After leaving the mountain Jesus and his disciples made their way through Galilee; and he did not want anyone to know, because he was instructing his disciples; he was telling them, 'The Son of man will be delivered into the hands of men; they will put him to death; and three days after he has been put to death he will rise again.' But they did not understand what he said and were afraid to ask him. They came to Capernaum, and when he was in the house he asked them, 'What were you arguing about on the road?' They said nothing because they had been arguing which of them was the greatest. So he sat down, called the Twelve to him and said, 'If anyone wants to be first, he must make himself last of all and servant of all.' He then took a little child, set him in front of them, put his arms round him, and said to them, 'Anyone who welcomes one of these little children in my name, welcomes me; and anyone who welcomes me welcomes not me but the one who sent me.'

Memorial Acclamation: Save us, Saviour of the world, for by your Cross and Resurrection you have set us free.

Communion Antiphon: You have laid down your precepts to be carefully kept; may my ways be firm in keeping your statutes.

PASTORAL CORNER

While this Gospel predicts the passion and death of Jesus, there are a number of other themes involved – one of which is the message that special hospitality should be offered to those from whom we can benefit the least. The trust that Jesus places in God he compares to the trust of a little child. Jesus uses the opportunity of the discussion over who is the greatest to teach the disciples what the ideal of “first place” must be in the Church community which they will become once he is no longer with them. Our faith should make a difference in the way we treat others. Jesus draws on the simplicity and humility of the child as a model for us. What is it about children that leads Jesus to make acceptance of them a test of the disciples’ attitude to him? This week reflect on your own ambitions as a Christian, and is service to others among them?

Safeguarding Training Sessions for ALL church workers

To all St Emilie’s Church workers, the next Safeguarding training session (2hours duration) have been organised here at St Emilie’s Canning Vale, at 2 Oct 2021 (at the Small Hall) 10am–12pm for all who have not attended any of the sessions that are currently being run by the Safeguarding Office in several other locations. It must be emphasised that this training is mandatory for ALL church workers whether they work with children or not.

This training is crucial due to the fact that the ACBC (Australian Catholic Bishops Conference) has broadened the Safeguarding requirements to cover persons working with vulnerable adults as well as children. Therefore I am urging all of you to make the necessary arrangements to attend one of these sessions. Please advise me or the Parish Office which session you will be attending. Please forward this message to all church workers at our parish. Thank you for your understanding and cooperation.
