Entrance Antiphon

Proclaim a joyful sound and let it be heard; proclaim to the ends of the earth; The Lord has freed his people, alleluia.

1st Reading Acts 15:1-2, 22-29

Some men came down from Judaea and taught the brothers, 'Unless you have yourselves circumcised in the tradition of Moses you cannot be saved.' This led to disagreement, and after Paul and Barnabas had a long argument with these men it was arranged that Paul and Barnabas and others of the church should go up to Jerusalem and discuss the problem with the apostles and elders. Then the apostles and elders decided to choose delegates to send to Antioch with Paul and Barnabas; the whole church concurred with this. They chose Judas known as Barsabbas and Silas, both leading men in the brotherhood, and gave them this letter to take with them: 'The apostles and elders, your brothers, send greetings to the brothers of pagan birth in Antioch, Syria and Cilicia. We hear that some of our members have disturbed you with their demands and have unsettled your minds. They acted without any authority from us, and so we have decided unanimously to elect delegates and to send them to you with Barnabas and Paul, men we highly respect who have dedicated their lives to the name of our Lord Jesus Christ. 'Accordingly we are sending you Judas and Silas, who will confirm by word of mouth what we have written in this letter. It has been decided by the Holy Spirit and by ourselves not to saddle you with any burden beyond these essentials: you are to abstain from food sacrificed to idols, from blood, from the meat of strangled animals and from fornication. 'Avoid these, and you will do what is right. Farewell.'

Responsorial Psalm Ps. 66

O God, let all the nations praise you!

O God, be gracious and bless us and let your face shed its light upon us. So will your ways be known upon earth and all nations learn your saving help. R/

Let the nations be glad and exult for you rule the world with justice. With fairness you rule the peoples, you guide the nations on earth. R/

Let the peoples praise you O God; let all the peoples praise you. May God still give us his blessing till the ends of the earth revere him. R/

2nd Reading Apoc 21:10-14, 22-23

In the spirit, the angel took me to the top of an enormous high mountain and showed me Jerusalem, the holy City, coming down from God out of heaven. It had all the radiant glory of God and glittered like some precious jewel or crystal-clear diamond. The walls of it were of a great height, and had twelve gates; at each of the twelve gates there was an angel, and over the gates were written the names of the twelve tribes of Israel; on the east there were three gates, on the north three gates, on the south three gates, and on the west three gates. The city walls stood on twelve foundation stones, each one of which bore the name of one of the twelve apostles of the Lamb. I saw that there was no temple in the city since the Lord God Almighty and the Lamb were themselves the temple, and the city did not need the sun or the moon for light, since it was lit by the radiant glory of God and the Lamb was a lighted torch for it.

Memorial Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia! All who love me will keep by words, and my Father will love them, and we will come to them. Alleluia!

Gospel: John 14:23-29

Jesus said to his disciples: 'If anyone loves me he will keep my word, and my Father will love him, and we shall come to him and make our home with him. 'Those who do not love me do not keep my words. And my word is not my own; it is the word of the one who sent me. 'I have said these things to you whilst still with you; but the Advocate, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, will teach you everything and remind you of all I have said to you. 'Peace I bequeath to you, my own peace I give you, a peace the world cannot give, this is my gift to you. 'Do not let your hearts be troubled or afraid. You heard me say: I am going away and shall return. 'If you loved me you would have been glad to know that I am going to the Father, for the Father is greater than I. 'I have told you this now before it happens, so that when it does happen you may believe.'

Communion Antiphon

If you love me, keep my commandments, says the Lord, and I will ask the Father and he will send you another Paraclete, to abide with you for ever, alleluia.

Eugène MARIE's Funeral Mass

I would like to express my deepest gratitude and appreciation to all those who assisted at my father's Funeral Mass and the hospitality that followed. I would like to thank, in a very special way, Mrs Tania Thuijs and the staff of St Emilie's Catholic Primary School for their enthusiastic support in providing us with the venue, the hospitality after the Mass, the printing of the Mass booklets, the beautiful music and the serving and cleaning up afterwards. Thank you also to our Acolytes, Parishioners, those who provided the beautiful flower arrangements, those who brought food and also all those who attended the Mass, all the Priests who concelebrated. It was a true manifestation of what the Church is called to be: a field hospital for the wounded and the broken.

Pastoral Corner

The Father and Jesus will not force their love on anybody. Love does not work like that. It must be freely given and freely received. In this week's Gospel, we hear that the Father and Jesus will make their home in the hearts of people only if they are loved and wanted. And they will know they are loved and wanted when they see us making an effort to reach out in love to other members of their family. Love is the keynote of the divine family lifestyle; if we haven't got it we shall be very out of place in that particular home.

This week, reach out in love and try to bring the gift of peace to someone whose heart is troubled or afraid.

A Note of Thanks

The Easter Triduum was prayerful and uplifting thanks to the many who generously shared of their time and talents: the Acolytes and Altar Servers, the Proclaimers and Cantors, those who led us in the music, the ushers and collectors, those who generously prepared and arranged the flowers inside our church and for the Altar of Repose and the many who assisted in the Liturgy of the Triduum in more ways than one. May the Risen Christ continue to bless you, transform you and take you places you never dreamt possible. Fr. Jean-Noël MARIE PP

Stations of the Cross on Good Friday

A very special Thank you to the Youths of our Parish who touched all our hearts with their powerful re-enactment of the Passion of Our Lord in the morning of Good Friday. I would also like to offer my deepest gratitude to all those who contributed in drawing all of us into such an awesome, prayerful and uplifting experience.

St Emilie's Parish After-School RE Classes

The RE Program classes have resumed now for Term 2. If you are thinking of enrolling your child it is still possible to do so, however, if you are thinking of your children making 1st Reconciliation or 1st Holy Communion, most of the preparation for Sacraments is almost complete for this year which means, they can't make the Sacrament this time. They are welcome to join the classes though for general formation, to make some new friends, and enjoy some of the fun things left do for Term 3 & 4. Due to Covid restrictions we are having to run classes a little differently than usual. Classes are still on Tuesdays between 4 & 5pm at the church, but due to space limitations we can't take children who are in year 1 & 2 for the time being. For the other classes we are having to alternate week by week, 2 groups one week and the other 2 groups the next as we must keep children apart. So, if you have children from Year 3 onwards you wish to enrol, please get in touch with Cynthia first to find out what's required and which days you can bring them to a class.
