Entrance Antiphon

As for me, in justice I shall behold your face; I shall be filled with the vision of your glory.

1st Reading

Amos 7:12-15

Amaziah, the priest of Bethel, said to Amos, 'Go away, seer; get back to the land of Judah; earn your bread there, do your prophesying there. We want no more prophesying in Bethel; this is the royal sanctuary, the national temple.' 'I was no prophet, neither did I belong to any of the brotherhoods of prophets.' Amos replied to Amaziah, 'I was a shepherd and looked after sycamores: but it was the Lord who took me from herding the flock, and the Lord who said, "Go, prophesy to my people Israel".'

Responsorial Psalm

Ps. 122

R/ Lord, show us your mercy and love, and grant us your salvation

- I will hear what the Lord God as to say, a voice that speaks of peace, peace for his people. His help is near for those who fear him and his glory will dwell in our land. R/
- Mercy and faithfulness have met; justice and peace have embraced. Faithfulness shall spring from the earth and justice look down from heaven. R/
- The Lord will make us prosper and our earth shall yield its fruit. Justice shall march before him and peace shall follow his steps. R/

2nd Reading

Ephesians 1:3-14

Blessed be God the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has blessed us with all the spiritual blessings of heaven in Christ. Before the world was made, he chose us, chose us in Christ, to be holy and spotless, and to live through love in his presence, determined that we should become his adopted sons, through Jesus Christ for his own kind purposes, to make us praise the glory of his grace, his free gift to us in the Beloved in whom, through his blood, we gain our freedom, the forgiveness of our sins. Such is the richness of the grace which he has showered on us in all wisdom and insight. He has let us know the mystery of his purpose, the hidden plan he so kindly made in Christ from the beginning to act upon when the times had run their course to the end: that he would bring everything together under Christ, as head, everything in the heavens and everything on earth. And it is in him that we were claimed as God's own, chosen from the beginning, under the predetermined plan of the one who guides all things as he decides by his own will; chosen to be, for his greater glory, the people who would put their hopes in Christ before he came. Now you too, in him, have heard the message of the truth and the good news of your salvation, and have believed it: and you have been stamped with the seal of the Holy Spirit of the Promise, the pledge of our inheritance which brings freedom for those whom God has taken for his own, to make his glory praised.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia! May the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ enlighten the eyes of our heart that we might see how great is the hope to which we are called. Alleluia!

Gospel

Mark 6:1-6

Jesus summoned the Twelve and began to send them out in pairs giving them authority over the unclean spirits. And he instructed them to take nothing for the journey except a staff - no bread, no haversack, no coppers for their purses. They were to wear sandals, but, he added, 'Do not take a spare tunic.' And he said to them, 'If you enter a house anywhere, stay there until you leave the district. And if any place does not welcome you and people refuse to listen to you, as you walk away shake the dust from under your feet as a sign to them.' So they set out to preach repentance; and they cast out many devils, and anointed many sick people with oil and cured them.

Memorial Acclamation

We proclaim your death, O Lord and profess your resurrection until you come again.

Communion Antiphon

The sparrow finds a home, and the swallow a nest for her young; by your altars, O Lord of hosts, my King and my God. Blessed are they who dwell in your house, for ever singing your praise.

Parish Priest on Leave

I will be away from our Parish from Monday 15 July 2024 to 10 August 2024 inclusive. In my absence I have asked Fr Stephen and Fr Anibal to celebrate the weekday Masses and the weekend Masses. Growing In Grace

Pastoral Corner

In this week's Gospel, the Apostles are to leave behind all their possessions, and are not to rely on their own resources but on the authority that had been given them by God' and the kindness of those they meet on their way. It is the same for us. Being that vulnerable makes the message the real resource, they, like us and Amos, have to rely on the power and authority given to us all. When we are free of the importance of possessions, place and people, then we are free to work for the Lord. Only then can we have our minds on the job of living the Christian life and bringing others to Christ. We have but to live simply, trust in Jesus and spread Jesus' message of the Good News. This week, reflect on how you might be able to live like that, and what an example that would be to others.

St Vincent De Paul Winter appeal

Every day at Vinnies, we see that ordinary people can make an extraordinary difference in their local communities. We are inspired by the joy of the Gospels and our Catholic social teachings to do things that matter "The spirit to feed, heal, shelter, nurture and inspire – the power to change lives – is in everyone". As we enter this winter, your commitment to helping those experiencing disadvantages, poverty, and homelessness is still very much needed and appreciated. If you can assist, envelopes for your contribution are available in the Church foyer or you can put your donation into the poor box. Donations of over $2 are tax deductible.

The RCIA (Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults) is a process for preparing and welcoming new members into the Catholic Church. The process invites those seeking to embrace the Catholic faith to 'come and see' what the Catholic community believes, how it lives, prays, worships and serves. The RCIA process is open and responds to the needs of the enquirers. It is relationship rather than information based. The focus is to become a lifelong disciple of Jesus. RCIA News
Help shepherd our RCIA enquirers and all visitors searching for hope and purpose in life. Every person craves to belong. A friendly smile, words of welcome or a chat over coffee, are the invitation to begin that journey. These are the same starting points for the RCIA. If you feel drawn with the above, join other parishioners in the Hall on Thursday 22 August 2024 for the "Come and See Session" to discover more about the RCIA process and ways you can help to shepherd those seeking to know Jesus Christ, the Good Shepherd. Please sign up on the sheet in the church foyer or contact the parish office on 9256-9650 to register or email canning.vale@perthcatholic.org.au
