Entrance Antiphon

To you I call; for you will surely heed me, O God; turn your ear to me; hear my words. Guard me as the apple of your eye; in the shadow of your wings protect me.

1st Reading Isaiah 53:10-11

The Lord has been pleased to crush his servant with suffering. If he offers his life in atonement, he shall see his heirs, he shall have a long life and through him what the Lord wishes will be done. His soul's anguish over he shall see the light and be content. By his sufferings shall my servant justify many, taking their faults on himself.

Responsorial Psalm Ps. 32

R/ Lord, let your mercy be on us, as we place our trust in you!

- The word of the Lord is faithful and all his works to be trusted. The Lord loves justice and right and fills the earth with his love. R/
- The Lord looks on those who revere him, on those who hope in his love, to rescue their souls from death, to keep them alive in famine. R/
- Our soul is waiting for the Lord. The Lord is our help and our shield. May your love be upon us, O Lord, as we place all our hope in you. R/

2nd Reading

Hebrews 4:14-16

Since in Jesus, the Son of God, we have the supreme high priest who has gone through to the highest heaven, we must never let go of the faith that we have professed. For it is not as if we had a high priest who was incapable of feeling our weaknesses with us; but we have one who has been tempted in every way that we are, though he is without sin. Let us be confident then, in approaching the throne of grace, that we shall have mercy from him and find grace when we are in need of help.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia! The Son of Man came to serve and to give his life as a ransom for all! Alleluia!

Gospel

Mark 10:35-45

James and John, the sons of Zebedee, approached Jesus 'Master,' they said to him, 'we want you to do us a favour.' He said to them, 'What is it you want me to do for you?' They said to him, 'Allow us to sit one at your right hand and the other at your left in your glory.' 'You do not know what you are asking' Jesus said to them. 'Can you drink the cup that I must drink, or be baptised with the baptism with which I must be baptised?' They replied, 'We can.' Jesus said to them, 'The cup that I must drink you shall drink, and with the baptism with which I must be baptised you shall be baptised, but as for the seats at my right hand or my left, these are not mine to grant; they belong to those to whom they have been allotted.' When the other ten heard this they began to feel indignant with James and John so Jesus called them to him and said to them, 'You know that among the pagans their so-called rulers lord it over them, and their great men make their authority felt. This is not to happen among you. 'No; anyone who wants to become great among you must be your servant, and anyone who wants to be first among you must be slave to all. For the Son of Man himself did not come to be served but to serve, and to give his life as a ransom for many.

Memorial Acclamation

We proclaim your death, O Lord and profess your resurrection until you come again.

Communion Antiphon

Behold, the eyes of the Lord are on those who fear him, who hope in his merciful love, to rescue their souls from death, to keep them alive in famine.

Growing In Grace

Pastoral Corner

In this week's readings, the nature of our Saviour is explored in the letter to the Hebrews. Rather than being a High Priest in the old sense Jesus became fully human. Being fully human he became subject to the same temptations that assail each of us, yet he did not sin. Jesus has now become our advocate, to whom we can draw near in time of need as we would to our closest friend. Jesus in the Gospel is faced with a question of power and the exercise of authority, and he explains it is not in his power to decide who will do what in God's Kingdom nor should we seek power. He then tells the disciples that we "must be servant to all" and goes on to say we are not to look for rewards in terms of position, power and status in this life. Rather we should look to the example of Jesus the Messiah and Saviour who came as a servant, the slave of all. This is the challenge presented by Jesus to those who would follow him. To be a servant. Jesus gave his life for others by dying and by the way he lived.

This week find time to reflect on the message of the Gospel and think about how you can be like Jesus in your own way and in the way you live.

EVANGELISING WITH SCRIPTURE

With Dcn. Harold Burke-Sivers (St Paul Centre)

At the end of Matthew's Gospel we are given the Great Commission to go out and evangelize all nations. And at the end of every Mass we are told to "go and announce the Gospel of the Lord." But for most of us, this poses a problem: How am I supposed to announce this Good News?

In this course, Deacon Harold Burke-Sivers—one of the most sought-after speakers in the Church today—shares practical guidance for how you can effectively share the Good News of Jesus Christ. You'll learn:

- ◆ The real goal of evangelization
- ◆ The startling connection between the Eucharist and evangelization
- ◆ How to share your faith!
- ◆ The surprisingly simple and biblical key to effective evangelization

Deacon Harold shares his practical guidance through engaging stories and a peppering of humour to drive his lessons home. If you've ever struggled to share your faith with others, then you're going to love this new course!

This course will help us discover the "real meaning" of the following words: DISCIPLE, EVANGELISM, GRACE, FELLOWSHIP and see how these words apply to our lives today.

When reading the Scriptures, we sometimes find words that are difficult to understand. Most of our English translations of the Bible are great interpretations of the original Hebrew or Greek. However, in any translation, not everything that was communicated in the original language can be precisely conveyed in another language. As a result, a translation rarely is a perfect version of the original.

Let us "bridge the gap" together and receive "fuel for the journey"

St Emilie's Junior Youth Group

It was wonderful to see many children come to the Drone Event and listen to Jerry Supandiman share insights into the world of drones. Watch this space for a drone show in the planning! Our youth, made a beautiful formation 'Glory in the cross'.

Let us tell the story of the cross of Christ ...

Let us glory in the cross of Christ, our salvation and our hope...

Let us stand together at the cross of Christ, where we see God's boundless love...

Let us ever glory in the cross of Christ and the triumph of God's great love!

We look forward to seeing your children at the next youth group meeting. If you would like to register your child (ages 9-16years) please email the office: canning.vale@perthcatholic.org.au.
