Palm Sunday

Year C

Entrance Antiphon

Six days before the Passover, when the Lord came into the city of Jerusalem, the children ran to meet him; in their hands they carried palm branches and with a loud voice cried out: Hosanna in the highest! Blessed are you, who have come in your abundant mercy! O gates, lift high your heads; grow higher, ancient doors. Let him enter, the king of glory! Who is this king of glory? He, the Lord of hosts, he is the king of glory. Hosanna in the highest! Blessed are you, who have come in your abundant mercy!

1st Reading

Isaiah 50-4-7

The Lord has given me a disciple's tongue. So that I may know how to reply to the weary he provides me with speech. Each morning he wakes me to hear, to listen like a disciple. The Lord has opened my ear. For my part, I made no resistance, neither did I turn away. I offered my back to those who struck me, my cheeks to those who tore at my beard; I did not cover my face against insult and spittle. The Lord comes to my help, so that I am untouched by the insults. So, too, I set my face like flint; I know I shall not be shamed.

Responsorial Psalm

Psalm 21

R/ My God, my God, why have you abandoned me?

- All who see me deride me. They curl their lips, they toss their heads. 'He trusted in the Lord, let him save him; let him release him if this is his friend.' R/
- Many dogs have surrounded me, a band of the wicked beset me. They tear holes in my hands and my feet. I can count every one of my bones. R/

- They divide my clothing among them. They cast lots for my robe. O Lord, do not leave me alone, my strength, make haste to help me! R/
- I will tell of your name to my brethren and praise you where they are assembled. 'You who fear the Lord give him praise; all sons of Jacob, give him glory. Revere him, Israel's sons.' R/

2nd Reading

Philippians 2:6-11

His state was divine, yet Christ Jesus did not cling to his equality with God but emptied himself to assume the condition of a slave, and became as men are, and being as all men are, he was humbler yet, even accepting death, death on a cross. But God raised him high and gave him the name which is above all other names so that all beings in the heavens, on earth and in the underworld, should bend the knee at the name of Jesus and that every tongue should acclaim Jesus Christ as Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

Gospel Acclamation

Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ, king of endless glory! Christ became obedient for us even to death, dying on the cross. Therefore God raised him on high and gave him a name above all other names. Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ, king of endless glory!

Gospel

Luke 22:14-23:56

Memorial Acclamation

We proclaim your Death, O Lord, and profess your Resurrection, until you come again.

Communion Antiphon

Father, if this chalice cannot pass without my drinking it, your will be done.

Growing In Grace

Pastoral Corner - Palm Sunday

The Jews had been longing for a great leader, like one of the Kings of old, who would lead them to victory against the Roman invaders. They thought that Jesus might be that leader, but by his actions he shows everyone that he is no earthly king or soldier – he comes as the King of peace, love and forgiveness. Reflect on your feelings as you listen to the Passion being read. What does the passion of Jesus tell us about where God is in the suffering of the world and in our own personal suffering?

This coming week, reflect on what does self-giving love imply for the way we live our lives? What does it ask of us personally? Then think of how you might practice this kind of love towards others.

St. Emilie de Vialar Canning Vale Parish 25th Anniversary

On 19 March 2001, Archbishop Barry James Hickey, Archbishop of Perth, established the Parish of Canning Vale and appointed Fr. Robert Carillo as its founding Parish Priest. On 19 March 2026, the Parish will celebrate our 25th Anniversary with events planned throughout the year of 2026.

To prepare for this auspicious occasion, an anniversary book is being planned, the theme is '25 Years of Faith our Journey Together.' We are looking to highlight events over the last 15 years since the previous anniversary book was published. Do you have any stories of a special event? Pictures of parish events? What does this Parish mean to you and yours? How did you feel supported during the COVID times?

I have established a working party to spearhead this exciting project.

Please contact one of the following who are gathering stories and preparing the Anniversary book:

PROJECT COMPASSION

Palm Sunday 12-13th of April 2025

This Lent, we shared the powerful stories of three remarkable individuals who have overcome immense challenges. Thanks to the kindness of supporters like you, their lives - and the lives of those around them - have been transformed.

In Samoa, Toefuata'iga's life was changed with access to clean water through Caritas Australia's partnership with Caritas Samoa. Her school now has a water tank, improving health and allowing the school to focus on education.

Lam, from rural Vietnam, overcame the challenges of living with a disability by joining the I-SHINE program. He now runs a successful freelance graphic design business and inspires others to pursue their dreams.

In the Democratic Republic of the Congo, Irene, found hope through Caritas Australia's partnership with Caritas Kongolo. By learning sewing and farming skills, she now provides for her extended family and mentors other women in her community.

Thanks to the support of your parish community, your generosity will create waves of change around the world. But the work isn't done yet. There is still time to donate! Together, we can Unite Against Poverty and help transform lives this Lent.

Exploring the Seasons of Grief is a small group (4-7 participants), peer-based educational program. It offers opportunity for individual reflection and group discussion. Exploring the Seasons of Grief aims to build resilience and bring peace and hope to adults who have experienced significant change or loss. Grief may be due to any number of experiences: bereavement, relationship breakdown, moving to a new country, job loss, experiencing a natural disaster etc. Exploring the Seasons of Grief provides an opportunity to examine how loss and grief have impacted on one's life. It imparts knowledge, skills and attitudes to enable participants to understand and manage their grief experience.

Date: Fridays 9th, 16th, 23rd & 30th May (4 sessions)

Time: 9.30am -1:00pm (morning tea provided)

Cost: $26 for the Seasons for Growth: Exploring the Seasons of Grief journal

Address: Catholic Pastoral Centre, 40a Mary St, Highgate

Contact Catholic Outreach on (08) 9422 7920

or outreach@perthcatholic.org.au for further information. Register by 28 April.

Considering becoming a Catholic? If so, you are not alone. Other adults and young people are doing so, beginning to explore what being a Catholic Christian means today. Committing yourself to Christ may be the most important decision of your life. Come on the journey to discover why. Parishioners are encouraged to invite family members or friends to consider taking this step. Please speak to Fr Jean-Noël MARIE or contact the Parish Office on 9256-9650 to express your interest.

The Safeguarding Program of the Archdiocese of Perth Commitment Statement

The Catholic Archdiocese of Perth is committed to providing a safe and secure environment for all its members, leaders, and especially its children and adults at risk.
